DSHA welcomes new Bond Finance Administrator

Anas Ben Addi was recently promoted to Bond Finance Administrator, an essential component of the senior management team of Delaware State Housing Authority. Anas will provide oversight of the financial services programs of DSHA, including the Single Family Mortgage Revenue Bond Program, the Multi-Family Mortgage Revenue Bond Program, Second Mortgage Assistance Loans, Delaware Housing Partnership, Live Near Your Work Program, Housing Rehabilitation Loan Program and the Neighborhood Revitalization Fund.

Anas brings with him a broad range of knowledge and experience in domestic and international financial management and risk analysis. For the past two years, he served DSHA as Management Analyst III in the Planning and Community Development Section. In that capacity, he directed and administered the research, development and implementation of new housing programs, including the Resident Homeownership Program, Community Land Trust, New Markets Tax Credits and Deed Restricted Homeownership. He was also responsible for leading DSHA's strategic planning process and maintaining data banks of information on housing in Delaware.

Prior to his employment with DSHA, Anas served as an International Finance Analyst at Maroc Telecom. He initiated and led a foreign exchange risk management process for several million dollars in assets. The new exchange risk management process reduced currency exchange losses by 15 percent. Anas has also taught Microeconomics and Finance as a part-time instructor with Delaware Technical and Community College.

Anas received his Bachelors Degree in Business Administration, with a concentration in Finance, from the National School of Management in Morocco. He also holds a Masters in Business Administration from Wilmington College. Anas resides in Dover with his wife.
